🏀 $10,000 Jazz vs Celtics over 241.5 (Odds : -110 or 1.91)

Utah play at one of the fastest tempos in the league, ranking third in pace and pushing the ball hard with their young roster. That speed comes at a cost, though, as the Jazz own the second-worst defense, which sets up Boston for a big night. The Celtics are a top-five offense and should consistently find clean looks. The trends back it up too: the over is 14–4 in Utah home games and 12–7 when the Jazz are coming off a win. This matchup strongly points toward a high-scoring game.

Had to wait to see if Keyonte George was playing as he was listed questionable all day. Now that he's playing, the Jazz will look to push the pace in this matchup.

The CELTICS are coming off scoring only 108 points at Portland and will be motivated here offensively especially due to having revenge from losing to the Jazz at HOME on November 3rd as a (-10.5) point favorite!

Remember, the JAZZ are 14-4 to the OVER/UNDER at HOME this season and 7-3 to the OVER/UNDER in their last 10 games as well! ⭐

🏀🏀🏀🏀

ENJOY the GAME @everyone and let's look to potentially have another profitable night in the NBA!

@cappersfree

Iowa head coach expects full roster to be a go facing Vanderbilt. Iowa defense matches up great with a Vanderbilt run heavy scheme that has scored 45 in the last 3 games of the season. Vanderbilt will be without TE Eli Stowers in this one which is a huge blow to this offense as he was the leading receiver for this Vanderbilt team.

Big fan of this Iowa defense that held Oregon to 18 points in a game that took a game winning field goal for Oregon to not lose. They played Indiana very tough as well. Iowa finished the season with a 18th ranked SOS, which was slightly better than Vanderbilts at 30th.

This Vanderbilt defense is one of the worst teams at getting off the field on 3rd down in the Nation allowing teams to covert on 3rd downs at a 43% rate (107th) while Iowa is a top 50 team in the nation at moving the chains. Vanderbilt defense has also struggled to create turnovers on the season ranking 85th in the country in that category.

Iowa has been elite as a underdog this season (4-0) and have been even better away from home (5-0) ATS.

It is extremely important to note that this Indiana team lost by 2 to Oregon, and had Indiana on the ropes all game in a tough game. This defense is legit and will be able to slow down this Vanderbilt offense while also being able to keep moving the chains on

DETROIT PISTONS (-2.5) over LA LAKERS

(3-UNITS) 💰💰💰

7:40pm PST - NBC

Everyone is taking the Lakers because it's LaBron's birthday. However, the Pistons are aware of that and will be motivated offensively to score points as they are coming off a 2-game losing streak and haven't lost three straight games all season long, plus the fact they are coming off scoring only 99 points in their last game which was their second lowest point total of the season.

Remember, the Lakers have a bottom-five overall defensive efficiency and come off only allowing 101 points to the Kings. Prior to that they allowed 119 to the Rockets, 132 to the Suns and 135 to the Jazz in three of their last four games!

The PISTONS are also 19-7 ATS as a FAVORITE this season as well and we know that when the public money is on LaBron James, the Lakers throw games away. Not having Reeves could be missed tonight if they are going to keep up with this Pistons team tonight!

MUSIC CITY BOWL

TENNESSEE/ILLINOIS

OVER 61.5 (-105)

(4-UNITS) 💰💰💰💰

2:30pm PST - ESPN

TENNESSEE is 6-2 to the OVER/UNDER as a FAVORITE and ILLINOIS is 3-1 to the OVER/UNDER as an UNDERDOG! Both defenses were very weak against the pass and on third down this season and these two quarterbacks in Altmyer and Aguilar were very successful this season passing the football.

To make it even more worse for these defenses, they won't have a few starters during to opt-outs and these two quarterbacks transfer portal. Tennessee also won't have a Defensive Coordinator for this game as HC Josh Heupel fired Tim Banks and hired Jim Knowles from Penn State for next season.

The TOTAL opened up at 59.5 and has since climbed despite over 75% public tickets and public money on the UNDER. There is still VALUE on the OVER here under the key betting number of 63. 👀

TCU (+7) good to (+6.5) over USC

(3-UNITS) 💰💰💰

6:00pm PST - ESPN

USC has their three top receivers and Tight End all OUT for this game and even though TCU won't have Hoover at quarterback, HC Sonny Dykes has had plenty of time to get his quarterbacks ready for this game in which he may play two quarterbacks. This was a TCU offense that was once one of the best offenses in the country earlier this season and perhaps this TCU team comes in aggressive offensively against a USC defense that has been suspect all season.

Remember, USC is 0-3 ATS in their last three games and 1-4 ATS away from The Memorial Coliseum in LA. This game is being played in the Alamodome in San Antonio, TX which is technically a home game for TCU being only 4 hours away! 👀

ILLINOIS (+3.5) over Tennessee

(4-UNITS) 💰💰💰💰

2:30pm PST - ESPN

The VOLS defense is atrocious! It's that simple! They allowed 28 ppg and close to 400 yards ppg. Illinois quarterback Luke Altmyer is going to have plenty of success moving the football up and down the field on this Vols defense. The only reason why Tennessee is a favorite in this game is because they represent the SEC and the fact this game is being played in Nashville, TN.

Illinois has played the more tougher strength of schedule this season and keep in mind too that Tennessee has only one victory over one team that's in a Bowl Game this season and that's Mississippi State who has a losing record. With Tennessee not having a DC and the fact they are already a struggling defense allowing a ton of yards and points, and the fact the Vols are only 3-7 ATS in their last 10 games, Illinois is the SHARP side in this Bowl Game, especially catching points with the better defense.
